SPECIAL GUEST ON TUESDAY, MAY 19TH

The Library will continue its "Massachusetts Authors" Speaker series with a visit from Chronicle reporter Ted Reinstein, who'll share his experiences in writing the NEW ENGLAND NOTE-BOOK: One Reporter, Six States, Uncommon Stories. After covering every corner of New England for 16 years for "Chronicle" Reinstein got tired of saying, "I have enough stories to fill a book." So he picked the best stories and wrote one.

Come join us for an amusing evening with Ted Reinstein on Tuesday, May 19 from 6:30–8:00 PM. A native of Winthrop, MA, Mr. Reinstein received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Brandeis University.

This event is free and open to the general public. Seats are available on a first-come, first-served basis in the Collins Meeting Room at 25 North Main Street. Sponsored by the Trustees of the Ipswich Public Library.

A NEW FACE AT THE LIBRARY!

The Library is thrilled to announce our newest staff member, Librarian Kathryn Wuerker! Katy has a Master's Degree in Library Science from Simmons College, and a BA in Classics from St. Michael's College, and has most recently been working at the Lebanon (NH) Public Libraries. She will be wearing many hats with us--including reference, local history, and teen services. "I am very excited to work with both the staff and visitors of the Ipswich Public Library, and I am delighted to join a library so well-loved by its community," Katy says.

Please stop by and say hello to Katy after she starts on May 11th.
