MOVING AROUND AND SPRUCING UP...

We have been very busy rearranging our materials over the last month! We've relocated collections into spaces that can allow materials of the same type to be all together in one place, as well as offering popular collections more room to grow.

Thank you for bearing with us during these transitions! We hope that the new layout will make it easier than ever for you to find your favorites.

Look for these changes:

- Biographies can now be found in the Gallery on the second floor.
- Large print books and audiobooks are now located in the Rogers Room on the first floor.
- Music CDs were moved in the first floor Browsing Room on the shelves of the back wall, behind the magazines. They are arranged alphabetically by artist name, to make it easier to find what you're looking for.

And watch for these improvements coming soon:

- A Friends of the Library Used Book Shop on the first floor!
- A makeover of the Teen Scene area, which will double the space for both homework and fun programs!

Mystery Book Discussion Group

Monday, January 11 from 6:30-7:30 PM
in the Collins Meeting Room

Do you love to read mysteries? Come join us as we meet every other month to discuss a new title. Questions? Please contact Reference Librarian Katy Wuerker at kwuerker@mvlc.org or (978) 356-6648, extension 3.

BOTTLE & CAN OPENERS

A fascinating collection of bottle and can openers is currently on exhibit in the Browsing Room of the Ipswich Public Library. These openers are varied in shape, style, and type of metals and are samples of what were available in the past 80 years. Long before the Digital Age, bottled-drinks and canned-goods manufacturers, enticed their prospective customers with hand held objects, such as branded and patented openers.

This exhibit, courtesy of Ipswich resident Brian Hogan, is on view for free during regular library hours. Now through January 31st.

Junior Great Books for Second Graders

Tuesday, JAN 12 , 3:30-4:15 PM

Join this book club for second graders if you love to read and talk about stories! Based on the Great Books format, but geared explicitly for young readers, group members will read a story in advance of each month's meeting and participate in a group discussion of the story. Participants should bring a snack and water bottle to each group. Registration is required. Email Maureen Fay at mfay@mvlc.org or call the Children's Room at (978) 356-6648, extension 4.
