

Ipswich Photographs
2002.06

Scope and Content/Series Description

Four boxes (1.8 linear feet)

Mostly late 19th and early 20th
Centuries

The photographs are divided into five series: People, Landscapes/Streetscapes, Water Views, Buildings, and Miscellaneous. There is also a box of mostly unsorted negatives. Some photographs and postcards are labeled and dated, but many have no or illegible identification. This is an artificial collection in that most of the photographs were never intended to be stored together and will only be of minimal use to researchers. The strength of the collection is in providing a visual record of Ipswich during the late 19th and early 20th centuries for anyone wishing to indulge in nostalgia!

Processed and described by Paula Grillo, September 2003
